

RUN BABY RUN

Words and Music by SHERYL CROW, BILL BOTTRELL and DAVID BAERWALD

Moderately, with a "2" feel (♩ = 112)

♩ Verse 1, 2 & 3:

E

1. She was born in No - vem - ber, nine-teen six - ty-three, the day Al-dous Hux - counts out all the mon-ey in the tax - i on the way to meet her run. 3. Instrumental solo...

ley died. And her ma - ma be-lieved that ev-'ry - plane. — And stares hope-ful out the win-dow at the one could be free, so her ma - ma got high, high, high. And her work-ers fight-ing through the pour - ing rain. 2. 3. And she's dad - dy marched on Birm-ing - ham, sing - ing might - y pro - test songs. And he search - ing through the sta - tions for an un - fa - mil - iar song and she pic - tured all the plac - es where he knew that she'd be - long. And he pic - tures all the plac - es where she knows she still be - longs. And she failed and taught her young the on - ly thing she'd need to car - ry smiles the se - cret smile be - cause she knows ex - act - ly how to car - ry

C7

A7

F7

Bb7

B7

N.C.

Chorus:
E

on.
on.

He taught her how to run ba - by run, - ba - by run, -

C#m7

G#m7

B

ba - by run, - ba - by run. -

So

E

C#m7

G#m7

To Coda

run ba - by run, - ba - by run, - ba - by run, - ba - by run. -

B

Bb

A7

C7

{ Past the arms of the fa-mil-iar, and their talk of bet-ter days to the
From their old fa-mil-iar fac-es and their old fa-mil-iar ways to the

A7 C7 D

com-fort of the stran-gers slip-ping out be-fore they say, so long.
 com-fort of the stran-gers slip-ping out be-fore they say, so long.

1. B E E/A 2. B D.S. al Coda

Ba-by loves to run. 2. She Ba-by loves to

⊕ Coda B E

So run ba - by run, ba - by run,

C#m7 G#m7 B Repeat and fade

ba - by run, ba - by run. So